3 SOCSO (PERKESO) is a Malaysian government agency under the Ministry of Human Resources that provides social security protection to workers and certain self-employed individuals. Its purpose is to provide financial and rehabilitation support when people experience work-related injuries, disabilities, invalidity, or, in some cases, job loss.

4 Its main functions include:

- Employment injury protection:

Covers workplace accidents and occupational diseases, including medical treatment and compensation.

- Invalidity protection:

Provides financial assistance if a person becomes permanently unable to work due to illness or disability that is not necessarily work-related.

- Employment Insurance System (EIS):

Offers temporary financial assistance and employment services to eligible workers who lose their jobs involuntarily.

- Rehabilitation services:

Helps injured or disabled contributors return to work through medical, physical, and vocational rehabilitation.

- Dependants' benefits:

Provides financial support to eligible family members if a contributor dies due to a covered event.

5 Of late, SOCSO (PERKESO) introduced a 24-Hour Protection Scheme (Skim Lindung 24 Jam) to enhance the social security protection and provide broader coverage for eligible individuals. It is a Non-Employment Injury Scheme that provides eligible employees with protection 24 hours a day, including for accidents that occur outside working hours and are not related to their job.

Best Regards.
